1990-1999

Looking Forward

1992 Companion Diocese Relationship with Dominican Republic brings campers to ECC

1995 Capital Campaign begins for new buildings and projects at ECC

1996 The labyrinth is installed by the Tower of Silence

1997 Caryl Frink and Father Hall retire as Directors

1998 Skippy's Cross is replaced

1999 Canon Roy Green becomes Director of ECC

manager at the start of the 90s with two of their children Barry and Brian.

Conrad Zahn came on as Property Manager in 1998. He is shown here replacing the dispensary roof on a work project.

the House Manager and Property Manager, respectively. They live on the camp property with their three children: Betsy, Michael, and Greg Winsor became the Property Manager in 1995. He is shown here being interviewed by the local media after an African cervil was found in the woods during a work project – much to the surprise of the campers and counselors dragging brush out of the woods! Greg helped contain the animal when it was found.

Christian lens with young adults- topics that still resonate today."

"ECC was and is a place to explore spirituality and God's love- a place to engage in questions about ourselves, the church and our world. As an adult I understand how leaders of our era. They were up to the task of discussing timely issues through the

Camper from 1989 - 1994 Visiting Staff '02

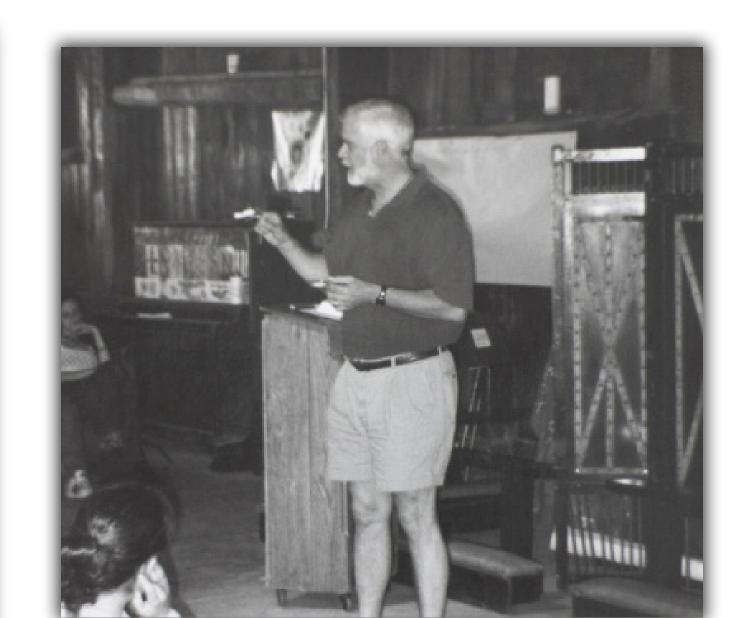

the mid-90s, the first of the projects are completed in 1997: three new camper cabins in the girls area, and the cabin for the chief and senior counselor. Caryl and Father Hall are pictured here with Canon Shumaker, during the dedication of "Shumaker" cabin.

After serving 17 years as Directors of ECC, Father Hall and Caryl Frink retire. In their letter informing the community of their resignation, they wrote, "We now move to the sidelines, from which we shall now be cheering ECC on, and praying that God will continue mightily blessing this wonderful ministry of the Church."

ALONE IS THE EMERGY OF A STEADFAST WILL BENT ON CREATING FELLOW SHIP

After Caryl and Fr. Hall's retirement, Susan Henthorne took over as Interim Director. In 1999 Canon Roy Green left his post at Trinity Church in Newport to serve as Director.

 Skippy's Cross, built and dedicated in the 70s, is replaced in 1998 from a donation from David Humes. The cross was installed decades before in memory of Harold Gifford, an ECC counselor who died in 1971.

Desmond Tutu's daughter, visi ECC and teaches campers and sta a South African song.

